25X1A9a [REDACTED], Executive, O/RR

Significant Activities of O/RR

1. O/RR has begun a new research program designed to determine significant capabilities and vulnerabilities of the economy of the Soviet Orbit. This is the first comprehensive effort undertaken by O/RR in accordance with its new responsibilities.

2. O/RR has been negotiating with the Department of State and the Weapons Systems Evaluation Group of the Department of Defense concerning fulfillment of a WSEG request regarding Soviet capabilities to offset damage resulting from the United States bombing program by the seizure of Western Europe. Final determination of O/RR's participation in this project has not yet been made.

3. O/RR and O/SI have come to an agreement concerning the delineation of their responsibilities with regard to the study of communications systems.
